Paul Donald Brunner grew up in Scribner, Nebraska. After earning his degree in criminal justice, Paul enrolled at the University of Nebraska College of Law. During law school, Paul made countless friends who remember him as a charismatic and positive person who inspired them to enjoy life. Paul's true passion was studying and discussing civil rights issues and upon graduation he wanted to work in the field. However, in September of 2006 Paul tragically died at the age of twenty-five from a sudden cardiac event. His death occurred just eight months before he was to receive his Juris Doctor degree. This memorial is a tribute to a wonderful son, brother, friend and colleague. May we never forget your enthusiasm for life.
