8:00-9:00 Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00-9:10 Welcomes

Dean Susan Poser, UNL College of Law
Professor Matthew Schaefer, Director, UNL Space, Cyber and Telecom LL.M.

9:15-10:30 Cyber Domain and the Jus Ad Bellum and Jus in Bello: Is "Effects Based" or Consequentialist Analysis Sufficient for Applying Armed Conflict Legal Models? A Case Study: Is a Hostile Cyber Act that Causes only Economic Damages Really an "Armed Attack" or "Act of Violence"?

Legal Perspective: Professor Jack Beard, UNL College of Law (confirmed)
Commentator: Maj. Geoff DeWeese, Chief, Cyber Law, USSTRATCOM (confirmed)
Policy Perspective: Mr. Todd Ballou, STRATCOM (confirmed)

10:45-12:00 Space Debris: Are Analogies to the Maritime Regime’s Law of Salvage Workable?

Policy Perspective: Mike Simpson, President, Secure World Foundation (confirmed)
Legal Perspective: Professor Matthew Schaefer, UNL College of Law (confirmed)
Commentator: Maj. Matt Burris, Chief, Space Law, USSTRATCOM (confirmed)

12:00-13:15 Lunch

Keynote: CAPT. JONATHAN S. THOW, Staff Judge Advocate, US STRATCOM (confirmed)

Economic Perspective: Professor Eric Thompson, UNL Business College (confirmed)
Legal Perspective: Professor Frans von der Dunk, UNL College of Law (confirmed)
Legal Perspective: Janna Lewis, Of Counsel, Holland & Hart (Colorado Springs)(confirmed)

14:30-14:45 Break

14:45-16:00 Space Situational Awareness: Public-Private Cooperation and Intergovernmental Cooperation – Whom With and How Best to Share Information?

Legal Perspective: Maj. Erik Mudrinich, Chief, Space & Operations Law, Vandenberg AFB
Commentator: Maj. Matt Burris, Chief, Space Law, USSTRATCOM (confirmed)

16:00-16:15 Break

16:15-17:30 Radio Frequency Interference and Spectrum Rights: A Growing Problem in Need of Further Legal Solutions?

Legal/Policy Perspective: Fred Campbell, Director of Competitive Enterprise Institute’s Communications Liberty and Innovation Project and Adjunct Professor, UNL College of Law,
Legal Perspective: Professor Gus Hurwitz, UNL College of Law (confirmed)
Commentator: Maj. Matt Burris, Chief, Space Law, USSTRATCOM (confirmed)

17:30-18:30 Reception & Poster Presentations of LL.M. Student Thesis Projects