Graduation Requirements and General Information

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate, you must satisfactorily complete 93 credit hours. It is possible for a student to graduate in 2 ½ years by attending summer school after his or her first or second year of law school or both. A student cannot graduate from the College of Law any earlier than 2 ½ years after starting law school.

All law students are responsible for six semesters of the Law College fee. Students who graduate in December will pay the sixth semester fee in their last semester at the Law College.

Transfer students must complete at least 45 graded hours at the College of Law and have a 7.000 GPA to be eligible for a degree with distinction.

Credit Hour Limitations

All students are expected to attend the Law College full-time and take 12-15 hours a semester. All students must attend at least five academic year semesters and take at least 12 hours in each of those semesters. 93 credit hours is required for graduation.

- 1] over 16 credit hours*;
- 2] less than 12 hours.

* Permission may not be granted [1] if you are on academic probation, or [2] if your GPA is not at least a 5.000

If you have received permission to take fewer than 12 hours, your loans processed through the University will be reduced because you will be paying less tuition. You are not eligible for student loans if you take less than 6 credit hours.

If you have a scholarship and have received permission to take fewer than 12 hours, you need to contact the Law College financial aid office (Darice Cecil) before the beginning of the semester to keep the scholarship from being cancelled.

Permission cards are available from the Registrar and must be signed by Assistant Dean Pearce before you register.

University of Nebraska College of Law
Faculty Policy Concerning Student Employment During Law School.

We, the faculty of the University of Nebraska College of Law, believe that there are many challenges to being a new law student and engaging with a new curriculum and way of thinking during the first year of law school. Therefore, if at all possible, full-time, first-year law students should not be employed at all during the academic year.

Full-time law students are engaged in learning about many different areas of the law. Students are building a broad base from which to launch their legal careers and it is important that they focus on their studies and strive for academic achievement so that they are fully prepared for employment after law school, and for a career that may over time involve a variety of practice areas and expertise. Therefore, law students should not be employed for more than 20 hours per week during the academic year.

Full-time is defined as a course load of 12 credit hours or more per semester.

Required Courses

Although you are free, for the most part, to choose which courses to take during your second and third years, there are some requirements and limitations:

(1) You must take a seminar that has a substantial writing requirement. The seminar may be taken at any point during your second or third years. The seminars offered during the spring semester (see the enclosed Upperclass Course Listing) will satisfy this requirement. Most seminars are limited to 12 students and lotteries are conducted every spring for all seminars to be offered the following year.

Psycholegal Research does not satisfy the seminar requirement, except when taken by a student enrolled in the Law/Psychology joint degree program.

Research in a Selected Field does not satisfy the seminar requirement, unless

- (a) taken by a student during his/her last semester at the College of Law;
- (b) all seminars offered that semester are full; and
- (c) the student has received permission from the Dean of Students.

(2) You must take a course in Professional Responsibility. Legal Profession meets this requirement.

(3) You must take 6 credit hours of an upper level professional skills course in order to graduate. The courses that meet this requirement are:

Advanced Legal Research	Construction Practice
Advocacy in Mediation	Estate Planning Problems
Alternative Dispute Resolution	Externships (if approved by the Dean)
Business Planning	Family Law Practice
Client Interviewing & Counseling	Family Mediation
Clinical Practice – Children’s Justice Clinic	Mediation
Clinical Practice - Civil	Negotiations
Clinical Practice - Criminal	Patent Practice & Innovation Management
Clinical Practice - Entrepreneurship	Pretrial Litigation
Clinical Practice - Immigration	Trial Advocacy

(4) Unless a student is enrolled in a joint degree program, a student may not receive more than 12 hours of total credit from courses in Externship, Research in a Selected Field, and non-law school courses.

Clinical Courses

Under the Nebraska Supreme Court's Senior Practice Rule, only those students with senior standing who have been selected by lottery are eligible to enroll in Children's Justice Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Clinic, Entrepreneurship Clinic or Immigration Clinic. Senior standing is achieved upon satisfactory completion of 60 credit hours.

Only those students who were selected by the application process last spring, or have otherwise received permission, may register for these clinics.

If you are selected to enroll in the Children's Justice Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Clinic, Entrepreneurship Clinic or Immigration Clinic, it is considered an irrevocable commitment on your part to register in the course. Absolutely NO drops are allowed from a clinical course. This rule is different from other lottery classes.

Although students visiting from other law schools are eligible to take the Children's Justice Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Clinic, Entrepreneurship Clinic or Immigration Clinic, absolute priority will be given to students currently enrolled in the College of Law. Students from other law schools interested in taking any of the clinics must have met the prerequisites required.

Programs of Concentrated Study

The Program of Concentrated Study at the College of Law is designed for students who seek a particular focus during their time at the Law College. Programs of Concentrated Study have been established in Litigation Skills, Business Transactions, Intellectual Property and Solo and Small Firm Practice. Information on each of these programs is available from the Registrar as well as on our web site.

In addition, a student who wishes to focus on a particular area of the law may work with a faculty member who teaches in the area to develop an Individualized Program of Concentrated Study. An Individualized Program of Concentrated Study must consist of at least fifteen credit hours in no fewer than five upper level courses that have been identified by a faculty member as central to the identified area. A student must declare an intention to complete an Individualized Program of Concentrated Study no later than the last day on which students may add a class during the semester beginning the student's third year. Students are encouraged to declare early to minimize problems caused by course sequencing and availability. Information on Individualized Programs of Concentrated Study is available in the Registrar's Office or on the Law College website, Current Students page.

Faculty members have provided information on Individualized Programs of Concentrated Study in the following areas:

Agricultural Law	Human Resources Law
Alternative Dispute Resolution	Intellectual Property Law
Business Entity Taxation	International Human Rights Law
Business Planning and Taxation	International Law
Constitutional Law	Labor and Employment Law
Criminal Law	Legislation
Education Law	Psychology and the Law
Entertainment and Media Law	Real Estate Law
Environmental Law	Space, Cyber and Telecommunications Law
Family Law	Sports Law
Health Law

Non-Law College Courses

All law school work must be done in residence.

Courses may be completed at other ABA-approved law schools with the approval of the Dean or his designee, and credit will be given for those courses in which a grade of "4" (or its equivalent at the law school attended) is received. Grades received in such courses will not be computed as part of the student's law school average for purposes of determining class standing, graduation with distinction, or eligibility for Order of the Coif.

This rule applies to graduate level courses, graduate level distance education courses that satisfy the requirements of ABA Standard 306(c), and upper-level law distance education courses that satisfy the requirements of ABA Standard 306(c) and that are offered by other ABA-approved law schools. A student may take three credit hours of such courses if the student receives approval from the faculty members of the Curriculum Committee upon a showing that (a) the courses will further the student's legal education, and (b) the courses will not duplicate courses available in the Law College. Before taking more than three credit hours of such courses, the student must also obtain the prior approval of the Dean or his designee. To take more than six credit hours of such courses, the student must show compelling circumstances and obtain the approval of the full faculty.

Except as part of an approved joint-degree program, a student may not receive credit for more than twelve hours of graduate level courses outside the Law College. A student may not take more than six credit hours of distance education courses per semester and may not receive credit for more than a total of twelve credit hours of distance education courses. Subject to the limitation set out above, credit toward the J.D. will be given for graduate courses in which a grade of "B" or above is received and for law courses in which a grade of "4" or its equivalent at the other law school offering the course, is received. Grades received in these courses will not be computed as part of the student's law school average for purposes of determining class standing, graduation with distinction, or eligibility for Order of Coif.

Students interested in taking a graduate level course for Law College credit must complete a request form which, among other things, requires the student to demonstrate that the course will further the student's legal education and will not duplicate courses available at the College of Law. Request forms for the Spring semester are available from Vicki Lill in the Student Services Office (Room 106) or on the Current Student page on the website. The form will be submitted to the Faculty Curriculum Committee to determine approval. Completed request forms must be received by Vicki no later than December 1, 2019.

Second Year Grade Point Averages & Academic Scholarships

Second year grade point averages and class ranks are computed when a student has completed 27 credit hours beyond the first year curriculum for a total of 60 credit hours.

Lottery Courses

Drops are not allowed! – If your name appears on the list for any of the lottery courses or seminars, you must let Vicki Lill know by 10:00 am, Friday, November 8, if you will not register for the course or seminar. If you do not inform Vicki Lill by that time, you will be required to register for the course or seminar. Drops of these lottery courses are not allowed unless you receive permission from the faculty member teaching the course and the Dean of Students. If you drop a lottery course without permission, consequences include forfeiting priority on all future lottery courses at the College of Law.

Lottery selections for the Clinics are an exception to this procedure. If you are selected for Children's Justice Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Clinic, Entrepreneurship Clinic or Immigration Clinic, it is considered an irrevocable commitment on your part to register in the course. Absolutely NO drops are allowed from a clinical course. This rule is different from other lottery classes.

Please see Vicki Lill to request permission to drop a non-clinical lottery class after November 8th.

Planning Tips: Concentrated Study; Credit Hours; Finals

All Students

1. Course Selection

If you have questions about which courses to take, you should discuss your course selections with your faculty advisor or the Dean of Students. Your advisor, or any member of the faculty, will be more than happy to work with you to develop a schedule that best suits your individual interests and professional needs. In addition, many faculty members have prepared information sheets on course offerings in particular areas. The information sheets are available on the Law College website. Click on Current Students and you will find the information sheets under "Upperclass Curriculum."

If you would like to talk to the faculty coordinator for the established concentrations, here's who to talk to:

Programs of Concentrated Study	Coordinator(s)
Business Transactions Program	Professor Thimmesch
Litigation Program	Professors Ruser, Schmidt and Sullivan
Intellectual Property Law Program	Professor Denicola
Solo and Small Firm Practice	Professor Medill

2. Limitations

Non-joint degree students may not take more than 12 total credit hours of Externship, Research in a Select Field and non-law school courses.

3. Finals Schedule / Rescheduling

In deciding which courses to take, one of the many factors you should consider is the final examination schedule you will be creating for yourself. The tentative Spring 2020 Final Exam Schedule is included in this packet. Although unexpected circumstances can arise, we currently do not foresee making any changes in the schedule.

Under the rules and regulations of the College of Law, you will be permitted to take a final exam at a time other than the regularly scheduled time only if:

- (1) you have two examinations on the same day;
- (2) you have four consecutive examinations on four consecutive calendar days (i.e., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday – not Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Monday); or
- (3) you experience a serious illness or other special circumstances beyond your control that affect your capacity to take the exam at the regularly scheduled time. Examples of "other special circumstances" include the death of an immediate family member, a car accident, birth of a child, a religious conflict with Saturday exams, and a conflict with a non-law exam.

Rescheduled exams must be taken at the earliest possible date after the date the exam was originally scheduled. A student seeking to reschedule an exam must contact the Vicki Lill before the exam.

4. Flexible Scheduling

A 3-credit hour class that meets three days a week in one hour blocks rather than 50 minute blocks will meet for 35 class days instead of 42 class days over the semester.

A 3-credit hour class that meets two days a week in 85 minute blocks rather than 75 minute blocks will meet for 25 class days instead of 28 days over the semester.

A 3-credit hour class that meets two days a week in 90 minute blocks rather than 75 minute blocks will meet for 24 class days instead of 28 class days over the semester.

5. Variable Credit Hours

One Credit Hour Courses

- Aviation Law
- Domestic Spectrum Management Law
- Export Control: ITAR
- Family Mediation
- Introduction to Federal Contract Law
- National Security Space Law
- Principles of Federal Appropriations & Fiscal Law

Two Credit Hour Courses

- Arms Control
- Copyright Law
- Estate Planning Problems
- Farm and Ranch Tax
- International Intellectual Property Law
- National Space Legislation
- Patent Law Practice and Innovation Management
- Worker's Compensation Law

Four Credit Hour Courses

- Business Associations
- Family Law Practice is a four credit hour course that will meet twice a week for two hours each time.
- Individual Income Tax
- Mediation is a four credit hour course that will meet twice a week for two hours each time.
- Children's Justice Clinic is a four credit hour per semester course. (Must enroll both fall and spring semesters)
- Civil Clinic may be taken as a four or six credit hour course.

6. Future Class Offerings

The tentative list of Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 courses can be found at the back of this packet.

Tips for Second Year Students

Pretrial Litigation will be taught in the spring semester. It is a pre- or co-requisite for Civil Clinic in the spring 2020 semester. It is a pre-requisite for Civil Clinic in the summer 2020, so if you plan to take Civil Clinic in the summer 2020, you must take Pretrial Litigation in the spring of 2020. It is a pre- or co-requisite for Civil Clinic in the Fall 2020 and will be offered in the fall 2020.

Trial Advocacy will be taught in the spring semester 2020 as well as during the 3-week pre-session in summer 2020. Evidence is a pre-requisite for Trial Advocacy and students who have taken Trial Advocacy will be given preference in the Civil Clinic lottery. Trial Advocacy is a pre-requisite for Criminal Clinic.

In addition to Evidence, Pretrial Litigation, and Trial Advocacy, the other litigation-related courses at the College include:

Administrative Law	Criminal Clinic
Advanced Legal Research	Criminal Procedure
Advocacy in Mediation	Family Law Practice
Alternative Dispute Resolution	Federal Courts
Arbitration	Mediation
Capital Punishment	Negotiations
Children's Justice Clinic	Remedies & Damages
Civil Clinic
Client Interviewing and Counseling

Business Associations and Individual Income Tax are offered during both the spring and fall 2020 semesters. Business Associations is a pre-requisite for the Entrepreneurship Clinic.

If you have an interest in business-related matters, you should take Business Associations during your second year because the course is a pre-requisite (or co-requisite) for advanced courses such as Securities Regulation, Business Planning, and Entrepreneurship Clinic.

Some classes (for example, Business Associations, Evidence and Individual Income Tax) are considered building block courses and are generally taken by second year students. As a general rule, those courses will not be scheduled against each other. If you wait until your third year to take courses that most students take during their second year, you run the risk of being locked out of other courses that you may want to take.

Enrollment and Other Limitations

Although most courses offered at the College of Law are limited to 70 students, some courses have lower limits. Those courses for the Spring semester are as follows:

Course	Class Limit
Family Law Practice	8
Family Mediation	24
Mediation	24
Negotiations	24
Pretrial Litigation	44
Trial Advocacy	32

Clinical Courses – Enrollment Limits

Course	Class Limit
Children’s Justice Clinic	8
Civil Clinic	8
Criminal Clinic	8
Entrepreneurship Clinic	10
Immigration Clinic	8

The clinics conducted their lottery for clinics last spring.

Pretrial Litigation

If you are interested in taking Pretrial Litigation you must participate in the lottery process. All students who plan to take Civil Clinic during the Summer 2020 must have already taken Pretrial Litigation prior to the summer semester. (Pretrial Litigation is a pre- or co-requisite for Civil Clinic.)

Seminars

All seminars are limited to 12 students. The lottery for the spring semester seminars has already taken place, except for Tribal Gaming Law. Check with the Registrar if you are unsure about your status in a seminar course. Third year students planning to graduate in May must have completed the seminar requirement. If you have not yet taken a seminar, see the Registrar immediately. Second year students who are interested in taking a seminar in the Spring 2020 semester should also see the Registrar.

Trial Advocacy

Trial Advocacy will be offered this spring as well as during the 3-week summer pre-session. Evidence is a pre-requisite for Trial Advocacy and Trial Advocacy is a pre-requisite for Criminal Clinic.

Odds & Ends

Course and Class Numbers

A number of courses offered at the College of Law are cross-listed with other colleges and have multiple course numbers. For example, Individual Income Tax has three course numbers: Law 637 (the law course number) Law 637G (the "G" course number), and ACCT 837 (the Accounting course number).

Core courses in the LLM Space, Cyber, and Telecommunication Law program are designated with a 600 section number. That registration number is to be used by the LLM students only. JD/MLS and LLM students will be graded on a separate grading scale for these courses.

Course number examples and who should use them
Law 637	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• JD students not enrolled in any joint degree program
Law 637G	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• JD students enrolled in a joint degree program if the course counts towards both degrees;• MLS students;• Non-law graduate students (permission required from their college as well as the College of Law)

Law 640-600	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• LLM Students

Pass / Fail

Externship is the only course taught at the College of Law that may be taken as pass/fail. It may be taken more than once in the course of study at the College of Law, but only for a total of 3 credit hours.

Incompletes

If you receive an Incomplete (I) in any course other than Psycholegal Research, the Incomplete must be removed within one year. Otherwise, the Incomplete will automatically be replaced with a failing grade ("0").

Graduate Students Taking Law College Courses

Graduate students may take courses at the College of Law but only with the prior permission of the instructor and the Dean of Students. The permission forms are available from Vicki Lill in the Dean's Office. Registration in Law College courses will only be processed once permission forms are returned to Vicki Lill.

Registration

Open registration is November 13 – January 12 (however it is recommended that you register by December 1 so that your financial aid can be processed in a timely manner).

You must enroll using MyRED. Registration is conducted on a first-come first-served basis with no class priority. Spring registration begins at 8:00 am on November 13 and is continuous through January 12. Any initial registration or reinstatement of a cancelled registration after classes begin on January 13 will be subject to a $100 late registration fee.

Registration Holds - NCard Use

Students with registration "holds" will not be permitted to initially register or add courses (including drop/add schedule changes) until these holds are released. Registration "holds" are placed on your record to prevent registration for classes. Holds may be incurred for academic or financial reasons, including using your NCard and failing to pay the bill by the 12th of each month. The holds must be cleared by the University agency or department placing the block prior to registration, and you must present the Release Form from the agency or department to Student Judicial Affairs, 125 Canfield Administration Building. Note: If you pay by personal check, the hold will not be cleared for 3 weeks to be sure your check clears your bank. Only Master Card or Discover Card are accepted for credit card payments.

Closed Courses During Registration

You cannot register for a closed course on MyRED. If you are informed that a course is full, please contact Vicki Lill.

Classes with Time Conflicts

Registering for two courses that meet at the same time or have overlapping meeting times is NOT allowed. It is up to you to verify that your courses do not overlap.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities who would like assistance with registration should contact Vicki Lill.

Registration Tampering

A student who tampers or attempts to tamper with the registration records of another student, including but not limited to dropping and adding classes, will be subject to disciplinary action.

Payment of Tuition and Fees

Any charge you incur for tuition, fees, University Housing, long distance telephone calls, Express Card purchases from the University Bookstore and Nebraska Union, University Health Center, and service charges from University Libraries, Parking Services, and Campus Recreation will appear on one statement. Payment can be made at the Bursar's Office, 121 Canfield Administration Building. Tuition and fees can be paid by a credit card. Instructions are included with the billings.

Statements for Tuition and Fees are posted on your MyRED account on the 25th of each month. It is your responsibility to check for any new charges. FAILURE TO RETRIEVE YOUR STATEMENT WILL NOT EXCUSE YOU FROM MEETING THE DEADLINE. Contact the Office of Student Accounts, 124 Canfield Administration Building, (402) 472-2887, if you have not received your statement by the 25th of each month. Due date is the 12th of the following month.

Full payment of all tuition and fees is due on February 12, 2020.

The late charge for failing to meet the payment deadlines is $20.00 each month. Holds will be placed on the records of students with delinquent accounts. Holds will prohibit the release of transcripts and diplomas and prohibit future enrollment (including adds and section changes) until the accounts are brought current. Students with accounts that are delinquent over one month will also lose student services such as access to the Recreation Center in addition to having Express Card privileges stopped. If accounts become two months delinquent, Parking Services will be authorized to tow the vehicles of students who incur parking fines.

Late Registration begins January 13. During Late Registration, students will be charged a $100 late registration fee. This fee will appear on your first billing for tuition.

Change of Address

If your local, permanent, or parents' address has changed since you entered the University or last submitted a Change of Address Form to the Dean's Office, you must fill out a change of address form. These forms are available in the rack outside of the Dean's Office. Please return the form to Vicki Lill, or email her at vicki.lill@unl.edu, so that we can change our records. Changing your information in MyRED does not change the records at the College of Law.

Drop / Add / Withdrawals

After initially registering for classes, you are free to adjust your schedule by adding and dropping most courses through MyRED during the Open Registration period. This does not apply to any lottery courses.

The deadline for adding courses is January 14...this includes Externships and Independent Research projects. Any adds after this point require the written permission of the instructor and the Dean of Students. See Vicki Lill for assistance with late adds.

Upperclass students who wish to drop a non-lottery course from their schedule may continue to do so through January 16 by contacting Vicki Lill, provided that, after dropping the course, they are still taking twelve (12) or more hours of law courses. A student must receive permission of the Dean of Students to drop below 12 hours.

The following chart shows the percentage of tuition you will be refunded for any courses you drop during the semester:

% of Tuition refunded	Last day to drop	Permission Requirement
100%	January 14 ($40 minimum charge for withdrawal from all courses)	None*
75%	January 18 (course removed from transcript; after January 20, Grade of "W")	None*
50%	January 25 (Grade of "W")	Instructor and the Dean of Students
25%	February 1 (Grade of "W")	Instructor and the Dean of Students
0%	After February 1 (Grade of "W")	Instructor and the Dean of Students

*Although no permission is required, please notify Vicki Lill so that your records at the College of Law can be updated. A change in MyRED does not change the information here. Permission forms are available from Vicki Lill.

A drop or withdrawal becomes effective for tuition and grade purposes on the date the transaction is processed through MyRED. Students who drop or withdraw from a course are entitled to refunds of tuition, Law College Fees, and University Program and Facilities Fees (UPFF) according to the above chart.

A student may request permission to drop a class at any time before the final exam for the course. Such drops require permission of the instructor and the Dean of Students.

No student may withdraw in good standing from the Law College absent approval of the Dean of Students.

A special service fee will be assessed for:

- ◆ Registering for classes ($20.00).

- ◆ Late payment of tuition and fees ($20.00 each month).

--------------------------	----------------------------	-----------------------------------	------------	----------------------	---------------

[3 credit hours] This is a course about business planning – the process of planning business transactions in a way that takes into account many relevant bodies of law as well as the needs of clients. Students will learn about the goals and methods of business planning, the role of ethics in providing legal advice, factors that influence the choice of business entity for a venture, legal rules applying to partnerships and limited liability companies (“LLCs”), relevant laws dealing with corporations and securities regulation, laws that pertain to corporate restructurings, and laws applying to the purchase, sale, or merger of corporate businesses. Thus, the course will seek to integrate insights from many fields, some of which students may have already studied in other courses, including corporate law, partnership and LLC law, securities regulation, antitrust law, individual income tax, corporate tax, and partnership tax. Most importantly, students will acquire practical skills in applying these multiple bodies of law to help clients solve practical business planning problems involving the formation, incorporation, restructuring, and disposition of a business. These include skills in drafting relevant legal documents, including legal memoranda, articles of incorporation or organization, and restructuring, sales or merger agreements. Students will acquire these skills by working in “firms,” and each firm will prepare one or two problems. Prerequisite: Business Associations and Corporate Tax. (For Learning Outcomes, refer to the Full Course Listing on the College of Law web site.)

Capital Punishment	9182 9275	Law 685 Law 685G	MTW	9:00-9:50 am	Schopp

[3 credit hours] This course examines legal doctrine and policy regarding capital punishment in the United States. It draws heavily but not exclusively on decisions by the United States Supreme Court. Topics addressed include: various Constitutional challenges and limitations according to Supreme Court decisions; aggravating and mitigating circumstances; jury selection and qualification; discriminatory application; the use of clinical testimony; and the role of counsel. These cases include many fragmented opinions in which the justices address conflicting interpretations and applications of Constitutional terms and principles. Thus, they present opportunities to develop skills applicable to analysis and argument more generally. This course differs significantly from the Jurisprudence course that addresses the justification of capital punishment and of punishment more generally. That Jurisprudence course directs primary attention to jurisprudential arguments regarding the justification of punishment, including capital punishment in principle and in practice. This course directs primary attention to the court cases and to the legal doctrine and policy issues arising out of those course cases. Thus, the two courses are complimentary with relatively little overlap, and neither presupposes the other. Each student can decide to enroll in both courses or in either of the two. Each student will decide whether to write a paper or to complete a 72 hour take-home exam.

Grading Information for Clinics

In the Clinic, students and faculty interact with each other on a daily basis. The evaluation of students' work is not based upon impressions formed by one or two encounters; rather, it is based on a composite of impressions formed by those daily interactions over the course of the semester. Students need to employ and develop various skills to represent their clients competently. It is possible to list some of those skills -- analysis, planning, initiative, promptness, execution, legal research, writing and drafting, courtroom skills, care and accuracy, observation of ethical standards, observation of office procedures, dependability, productivity and attitude -- but it is impossible to catalogue all of the skills students may be called upon to exercise. Further, not every skill will be involved in each case on which students work. As a result, students should understand that evaluation of their Clinic performance, and hence the grade they ultimately receive in Clinic, is based on the faculty's overall impression of the level at which students operate in a professional law office setting.

Corporate Governance Seminar	17532 17533	Law 579 Law 579G	WThF	1:15-2:15 pm	Fisher

[3 credit hours] This course focuses on the manner in which U.S. publicly traded companies make decisions—particularly the interactions between shareholders, the board of directors, top executives, and outside professionals such as the accounting firms that audit the companies' annual financial statements, compensation consultants who advise on top executive pay, and search firms that assist companies when they look for new board candidates.

The course includes an overview of current governance, and case studies: of WorldCom and Enron before the Sarbanes-Oxley Act; and, in shorter form, of Lehman, AIG, and Bear Stearns during the credit crisis. The course addresses in detail the revolution in auditor regulation, together with substantial additional responsibilities that now fall on the audit committee of the board of directors and reforms affecting the board's compensation and nominating committees.

The course devotes several classes to executive pay, describing that pay in detail, examining an interesting sample of the financial and economic research considering whether the amount and composition of the pay provides perverse incentives, elaborating the relationship between compensation and risk, and providing detailed descriptions of post-credit crisis efforts to change compensation in the financial sector. Throughout this portion of the course, students will consider the advisability of government intervention.

The course concludes with discussions of how we might evaluate governance reforms, corporate social responsibility, the ethical obligations of attorneys who advise public companies, and how students will derive moral satisfaction in their practices as transactional lawyers.

This course constitutes a seminar with a substantial writing requirement within the meaning of our academic criteria. Pre-requisite: Business Associations

-------------------------------	-------------------------------	---	-----------	---------------------	-----------------

[3 credit hours] Cybersecurity is one of the most important and challenging emerging legal issues of the 21st century. Networked computer systems give bad actors access to data and information stored on those systems (e.g., consumer financial or health information; trade secrets and other sensitive commercial information), control over the systems themselves (e.g., to damage or disrupt; to use for other computer-based activities), and access to physical-world control systems (e.g., control over industrial equipment, electrical infrastructure, or driverless cars). Amazingly, there is no coherent legal framework to address these issues. There is, however, an at-times incomplete and at-times overlapping patchwork of legal authorities that applies to many of them. Moreover, many of these issues implicate technical considerations: either technology makes it more difficult for the law to address them, or they are better solved by technology than through the law. This class provides students with an interdisciplinary introduction to cybersecurity law, focusing on the legal frameworks that exist today, the challenges of developing more comprehensive legal frameworks, and the nuts-and-bolts guidance that lawyers need to be able to give their clients when it comes to good (and bad) cybersecurity practices.

Over the past thirty years, no single factor has impacted global trade regulation more than the rise of China as the largest trading nation on Earth. National Space Legislation	9260 9289 9288	Law 766 Law 766G Law 766-600	See Mini-Courses		vonder Dunk
This mini-course meets January 13-February 28
[2 credit hours] In view especially of the increasing commercialisation and privatisation of space activities and their applications, there is an increasing need at the national level to implement the international space treaties and some other international space law, notably by means of the establishment of national space legislation, including licensing regimes dealing for example with liability issues, or other control mechanisms. Thus, the course will discuss the various ways in which countries, as well as the EU and European Space Agency across the world have chosen, or are choosing, to implement relevant international requirements as well as to assert national space policies by means of such national law. A prominent place in this context will be taken by discussion of national US law on such activities as satellite communications, satellite remote sensing and space tourism. This course is available to online LLM students. Student grade is based on post-class paper based on in-class presentation.

Public Health Law	17552	Law 687	WF	1:15-2:15 pm	Lawson
	19131	Law 687G

[2 credit hours] Public Health is the term generally used to describe initiatives that focus on the health of entire populations. Public health generally is contrasted with health care, which most often focuses on the health needs of individuals. Public health initiatives can arise in the private sector, but because they focus on the health of entire populations, they very often originate in government, and are a part of public rather than private law. Classic examples of public health at work are the control of epidemic diseases, the assurance of sanitation in food and water and of safety in workplaces, and the regulation of tobacco and alcohol. In all these areas and many more, the law is involved in protecting the public's health. Government initiatives aimed at protecting the public's health, however, may infringe on individual liberty. In this course, students will study public health as an independent field, but the course will emphasize the law's involvement in implementing public health initiatives, and in setting limits on them.

Secured Transactions	9200	Law 644	WThF	3:00-4:00 pm	Wilson

[3 credit hours] After an overview of the rights and obligations of an unsecured creditor under state law, this course focuses on the rights and obligations of a secured creditor under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Initially, the relationship between the debtor and the secured creditor is considered by examining the statutory requirements for granting a security interest in personal property and the rights of the secured creditor when the debtor defaults on its obligations. Thereafter, students will learn how this relationship between a debtor and one of its creditors impacts other creditors of the debtor. This requires a study of the filing system used for the perfection of a security interest and the priority rules for resolving conflicts between the various creditors of a debtor. Students will learn the fundamental bankruptcy concepts, but bankruptcy is not a prerequisite for the course. The final grade will be based on class participation, including two written assignments, and a final, open book written examination.

Statutory Interpretation: Practice & Policy	17553 19138	Law 728 Law 728G	ThF	1:15-2:30 pm	Berger
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	------------	---------------------	---------------

[3 credit hours] This course focuses on the tools lawyers utilize when they interpret statutes. We will begin with a statutory case study, tracking the consideration, adoption, and subsequent judicial interpretations of one particular statute. We will then examine various theories and canons of statutory interpretation. We will also examine the administrative state with particular attention to issues of statutory interpretation involving administrative agencies. This course aspires to be simultaneously highly practical and jurisprudential. It will be practical in that lawyers work with statutes all the time, and this course will provide a comprehensive approach to wrestling with the problems that arise during statutory interpretation. Students should be able to apply the skills they learn in this course to help interpret statutes they encounter throughout their careers. The course will also be jurisprudential in that it asks students to explore how judges should interpret legislative enactments in light of the legislature's public policy goals and courts' own institutional limitations.

Specifically, the course will focus on how key psychological factors influence the source, nature, and escalation of conflict and the implications of these factors for dispute resolution in both litigation and alternative dispute resolution contexts (e.g., negotiation, mediation, arbitration, etc.). The goals of the course are twofold: (1) provide students with an understanding of the theoretical and empirical foundations of social psychological research regarding conflict and dispute resolution; and (2) apply this research to practical issues legal practitioners encounter in both litigation and alternative dispute resolution contexts.

Trial Advocacy	9170 9171	Law 761 Law 761G	Th	5:30-8:30 pm	S. Schmidt

[3 credit hours] The fundamentals of trial practice. This is a "learning by doing" skills course where you will learn and practice the basic, foundational skills necessary to try a civil or criminal case to a judge or jury. You will analyze case files, prepare for trial and perform each of the various portions of a trial – opening statements, direct examination, cross examination and closing arguments. The course will culminate with a 4 hour simulated jury trial. Each three hour class period will consist of an hour long lecture followed by two hours of practical application exercises. During the practical application portion of the class, each student will not only perform the skill being taught in the role of an advocate, but will also serve a variety of other roles, such as a witness, judge or bailiff. Each skill performance will be video-taped for further critique and review. Student grades are based on preparation and performance of the assigned exercises (both as advocate and witness), written assignments, demonstration of appropriate courtroom decorum and preparation and performance of the final 4-hour trial. NOTE: Witness Interviews and Final trials will be scheduled for two Saturdays at the end of the semester, dates TBD. Pre-requisite: Evidence. Enrollment Limit 32
