General Instructions & Information

All courses offered at the Law College during the summer sessions are 3 credit hour courses, with the following exceptions:

- Civil Clinic may be taken for 4 or 6* credit hours. (*6 credit hours require professor permission.)
- Comparative Chinese Law and other study abroad courses may be offered for less than 3 credit hours.
- Entrepreneurship Clinic is 6 credit hours.
- Externship may be taken for 1-3 credit hours.
- Immigration Clinic is 4 credit hours.
- Research in a Selected Field may be taken for 1-3 credit hours.

Summer courses are very intensive; the same amount of material that would be covered in 14 weeks during either the fall or spring semester will be covered in 5 weeks, or, in the case of the pre-session, 3 weeks.

No courses taught at the College of Law may be taken pass/fail except Externship.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate, a student must satisfactorily complete 93 credit hours. It is possible for a student to graduate in 2 ½ years by attending summer school after his or her first or second year of law school or both. A student cannot graduate any earlier than 2 ½ years after starting law school at the College of Law.

Students who graduate early are responsible for six semesters of the Law College Fee. The sixth semester fee will be billed to you in your last semester at the Law College.

Transfer students must complete at least 45 graded hours at the College of Law and have a 7.000 gpa to be eligible for a degree with distinction.

Summer Semester Credit Hour Limitations

Under the rules and regulations of the College of Law, you may not take more than 3 hours during the pre-session, 6 hours during the first five-week session, and 6 hours during the second five-week session.

You are not eligible for summer student loans if you take less than 6 credit hours.

Fall and Spring Semester Credit Hour Limitations

Students are expected to attend the Law College full-time and take 12-15 hours each semester. Students must attend at least five academic year semesters and take at least 12 hours in each of those semesters.

Students may not take more than 20% of the total hours required for the JD degree in any semester.

You must receive permission from Dean Pearce if you plan to take:

- 1] over 16 credit hours;*
- 2] less than 12 hours.

* Permission may not be granted [1] if you are on academic probation, or [2] if your GPA is not at least a 5.000

If you have received permission to take fewer than 12 hours, your loans processed through the University will be reduced because you will be paying less tuition. You are not eligible for student loans if you take less than 6 credit hours.

If you have a scholarship and have received permission to take fewer than 12 hours, you need to contact the Law College financial aid office (Beki Colberg) before the beginning of the semester to keep the scholarship from being cancelled.

Permission cards are available from the Registrar and must be signed by Assistant Dean Pearce before you register.

Attendance Requirements

Students are required to attend classes regularly and to prepare all assigned work thoroughly. Inadequate class attendance or preparation may result in the student being dropped from the course or may adversely affect the final grade the student receives in the course.

Required Courses

Although you are free for the most part to choose which courses to take during your second and third years, you should be aware of the following requirements and limitations:

- (1) If you will be a second year student in 2019-2020, you must take Constitutional Law I. This course is being offered during the fall 2019 semester.
- (2) You must take a seminar that has a substantial writing requirement. The seminar may be taken at any point during your second or third years. Every seminar offered during the fall and spring semesters will satisfy the requirement. Most seminars are limited to 12 students and lotteries are conducted once a year, in the spring semester, for all of the seminars to be offered the following year.

No seminars are offered in the summer. Psycholegal Research does not satisfy the seminar requirement except when taken by a student enrolled in the Law/Psychology joint degree program.

Research in a Selected Field does not satisfy the seminar requirement unless (a) taken by a student during his/her last semester at the College of Law; (b) all seminars offered that semester are full; and (c) the student has received permission from Assistant Dean Pearce.

- (3) You must take a course in Professional Responsibility. Legal Profession meets this requirement and will be offered this summer by Professor Blankley as well as in the fall (Dooling) and spring (Blankley) semesters.

The Multi-State Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE) is required for bar admission in Nebraska and most other states. Since the MPRE requirements vary from one jurisdiction to another, you should check with the board(s) of bar examiners in each jurisdiction to which you intend to apply.

The MPRE is given three times a year, typically in March, August, and November. You can take the MPRE either before or after you take Legal Profession.

- (4) You must take an upper level professional skills course in order to graduate. Students are required by ABA to take a minimum of 6 hours of professional skills classes. The courses that meet this requirement are:

Advanced Legal Research	Clinical Practice - Immigration
Advanced Trial Advocacy	Construction Practice
Advocacy in Mediation	Externship (if approved by the Dean)
Appellate Advocacy	Family Law Practice
Business Planning	Family Mediation
Client Interviewing & Counseling	Mediation
Clinical Practice – Children’s Justice Clinic	Negotiations
Clinical Practice - Civil	Patent Practice and Innovation Management
Clinical Practice - Criminal	Pretrial Litigation

- (5) Unless a student is enrolled in a joint degree program, a student may not receive more than 12 hours of total credit from courses in Externship, Research in a Selected Field, and non-law school courses.

Registration for a summer session course is conditioned on the student remaining in good academic standing at the College of Law. If a student who has registered for a summer class is subsequently dismissed from the College of Law because the student failed to achieve the minimum grade point average necessary to continue, the student's registration will be cancelled and any tuition paid will be refunded.

Course Numbers

A number of the courses offered at the College of Law are cross-listed with other colleges and have multiple course numbers.

- a. Students who are enrolled in the College of Law and who are not enrolled in any joint degree program must use the law course and call numbers.
- b. Students who are enrolled in the College of Law and who are also enrolled in a joint degree program must use the "G" course and call numbers for courses that count toward both degrees.
- c. Students who are enrolled in the MLS degree program must use the "G" course and call numbers. If there is no "G" course and call number, please see Vicki Lill.
- d. Graduate students who are not enrolled in the College of Law or in the MLS program may use either the non-law course and call numbers or the "G" course and call numbers. Graduate students should get permission from their college to use a "G" course and call number.

Students who are currently in their first year at the College should discuss their course selections with their faculty advisor. The College will hold a session on upperclass courses in late March.

Final Examinations

The finals schedule is on page 2 of this packet.

Summer session exams may not be rescheduled for any reason other than the following:

- (1) you have two examinations on the same day;
- (2) you experience illness or other special circumstances beyond your control that affect your capacity to take the exam at the regularly scheduled time. Examples of "other special circumstances" include the death of an immediate family member, a car accident, birth of a child, a religious conflict with Saturday exams, and a conflict with a non-law exam.

Rescheduled exams must be taken after the regularly scheduled exam. A student seeking to reschedule an exam must contact the Registrar, Vicki Lill, before the exam.

Some Things Worth Knowing

Incompletes

If you receive an Incomplete in any course you take other than Psycholegal Research, the Incomplete must be removed within one year. Otherwise, the Incomplete will automatically be replaced with a failing grade ("0").

The Future

We do not yet have a list of the courses that will be offered during the Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 semesters. With the exception of Comparative Chinese Law and Writing for Law Practice, the classes offered this summer will most likely be offered during the 2019-2020 academic year. We currently anticipate that fall pre-registration materials will be available in late March.

Financial Aid

If you are interested in applying for summer financial aid (work-study and/or loans), you should complete a summer financial aid application on-line (www.unl.edu/scholf) as soon as possible. You must take at least 6 hours to be eligible for summer financial aid. The hours do not have to be in consecutive sessions. (Financial aid will be dispersed during the session in which you have registered for your sixth hour.)

Graduate Students at the University of Nebraska

Graduate students may take courses at the College of Law, but only with the prior permission of their advisor, the Law College instructor, and the Assistant Dean. The permission forms are available from Vicki Lill. Registration in Law College courses will only be processed once permission forms are returned to Vicki and an override is requested.

Registration Procedures

Summer registration begins March 6 and is continuous through the Sunday prior to the start of classes for each session. You will enroll on MyRED. Any initial registration or reinstatement of a cancelled registration after classes begin will be subject to a $25 late registration fee.

Registration Periods

Registration Holds

Students with registration "holds" will not be permitted to register or add courses (including drop/add schedule changes) until these holds are released. Registration "holds," incurred for academic or financial reasons, are placed on your record to prevent registration for classes. The holds must be cleared by the University agency or department placing the block prior to registration and you must present the Release Form from the agency or department to Student Judicial Affairs, 125 Canfield Administration Building.

Closed Courses During Registration Time Conflicts

You cannot register for a closed course in MyRED. If you are informed that a course is full, please contact Vicki Lill. Also, you cannot register for two courses that meet at the same time or have overlapping meeting times.

Prerequisites and Co-Requisites

You are responsible for ensuring that you meet requirements for any particular course. Ignoring course prerequisites/co-requisites can result in serious financial and academic consequences. If you do not qualify for a course in which you enroll, you may be required to drop it or you may be administratively dropped from the course.

Registration Tampering

A student who tampers or attempts to tamper with the registration records of another student, including but not limited to dropping and adding classes, will be subject to disciplinary action.

Before you log into MyRED

- Identify the courses from this packet that you wish to take.
- Have your Student Identification Number (your NU ID), the 4- or 5-digit class number used for registration for the courses that you plan to request, and your password.
- Verify you are enrolled for the correct number of credit hours. Some courses default to one credit hour and it's up to you to make the change to the correct number of credit hours. Failure to do this will lower the amount of financial aid you receive because of the total number of credit hours you are registered for.
- Clear any registration holds. If you have any holds, you will be denied enrollment access in MyRED.
- Note the registration dates for each of the summer sessions. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis for all summer sessions. Initial registration after classes begin for a session will result in a $25.00 late registration fee.

Early Registration & Payment of Tuition and Fees

Statements for Tuition and Fees are posted on your MyRED account on the 25th of each month. It is your responsibility to check for any new charges. The due date is the 12th of the following month. See calendar, page 2.

If you have been awarded a loan for the summer sessions, you may take your statements and summer financial aid award letter to the Student Accounts Office, 124 Canfield Administration Building, to arrange for a payment deferment.

Tuition and Fees Statements must be returned with full payment by the payment deadline. If paying by check or money order, payment may be made by mail. Cash payments must be made in person to a cashier at the Bursar's Service Counter, 121 Canfield Administration Building. Visa and MasterCard may be used to pay tuition and fees.

Students who do not pay by the payment deadline WILL NOT BE CANCELLED, but will incur a $20 late payment charge each month and will have a block placed on their records. These students will be sent a follow-up notice with a new payment deadline date. If the account is not made current by the new deadline date, additional late charges will be assessed and the early registrations for any summer sessions or terms which begin after that date will be subject to cancellation.

If your plans change and you decide not to attend summer session classes after you register, you must drop your courses or cancel your registration, or you will continue to be billed for full tuition, fees and late charges. You should drop courses in MyRED. If you drop/cancel after paying your tuition and fees, you will incur a $40 minimum charge. Withdrawals from a summer session after classes have begun may be subject to a partial tuition charge. Please see the section on Drop/Add/Withdrawals for further information.

Late Registration

It is to your advantage to register early and pay tuition and fees by the deadline date. Students who choose to register during the late registration period will be charged a late fee of $25.00. The late registration periods are found on the summer calendar on page 2.

Payment of Obligations

Failure by the student to pay any financial obligation or meet any other obligation owed to the College of Law or to the University or to any department, division, or agency thereof, will result in denial of readmission, denial of transcripts, denial of registration for ensuing terms, withholding of diplomas and denial of grade reports until the debt is paid in full.

Change of Address Forms

If your local, permanent, or parent's address has changed since you entered the University or last submitted a Change of Address form to the Dean's Office, you must fill out a Change of Address form. These forms are available in the rack outside of the Dean's Office and should be given to Vicki Lill so that we can change our records at the College of Law. In lieu of the form, you can submit email to Vicki at vicki.lill@unl.edu with the information. While it is your responsibility to update MyRED, doing so does not change the records at the College of Law.

Drop / Add / Withdrawals

Students who wish to drop or add a course from their schedule may do so in MyRED. Key dates can be found in the calendar on page 2.

The effective date of a drop or add for tuition and grade purposes is the date on which the transaction is in MyRED. For those transactions performed in person, the effective date is the date on which the drop/add form is filed.

Students who drop courses may be entitled to refunds of tuition and University Program and Facilities Fees (UPFF). If you drop a course during the first two class days of the pre-session or the first three class days of either five week session, you will not be charged any tuition for the course you drop, and the tuition you paid for the course will be refunded to you. But if you withdraw from the session during this period (i.e., drop all of the courses for which you registered in the session), your refund will be the amount of tuition and fees you paid minus $40.

	Full Refund	Partial Refund
Pre-Session	Drop by May 21	Drop by May 24
First 5-week Session	Drop by June 12	Drop by June 21
Second 5-week Session	Drop by July 17	Drop by July 26

You will need to contact Student Accounts to determine the percentage of your refund.

Late Drops (Grade of "W")

Drops may not be performed in MyRED during the late drop period. All such drops must be performed in person at the Law College. For summer sessions, the deadline to drop a class or withdraw from all classes (grade of "W") for a session can be found in the calendar on page 2.

During the Late Drop Period, you can only drop a course with the permission of both the Instructor and the Assistant Dean. Any courses dropped after the above stated deadlines will appear on your University and Law College transcripts as a withdrawal ("W"). A student who wishes to be allowed to drop a course after the Late Drop Period must see Assistant Dean Pearce before the date of the final examination for the course.

Service Fees

- ◆ Processing an initial registration during the Late Registration period ($25.00)
- ◆ Late payment of tuition & fees ($20.00/mo.)
- ◆ I.D. Card replacement ($20.00)
- ◆ Graduation application ($25.00)

Study Abroad - Cambridge

The Cambridge Summer Session is a fully ABA accredited program in association with Downing College of Cambridge University, England, and the University of Mississippi Law School, the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville School of Law, the University of Tennessee College of Law, and the University of Nebraska College of Law. Dates for the summer session are June 24-August 2, 2019.

UNL Law Professor Brett Stohs will teach Global Perspectives on Law & Entrepreneurship (2 credits) A comparative look at selected legal issues that impact the formation and development of entrepreneurial endeavors across the globe. Anticipated topics include corporate formation and governance; tax policy and availability of venture capital; intellectual property protection; and laws relating to employment, contract, and e-commerce. The United States will be used as a reference point to discuss legal doctrines and approaches found in other jurisdictions. Discussion will also be driven by areas of student interest and research into non-U.S. jurisdictions, culminating in a final presentation and paper regarding their research findings.

You are not required to know anything about the above topics beyond what is typically covered in the first-year. Therefore, courses like Business Associations / Corporations, Intellectual Property, and Employment Law are not prerequisites.

Text: None. Materials provided by professor.

Other courses include:

International Regulation of Cryptotransactions International Law

Additional Course Descriptions for Summer 2019

Civil Clinic [4-6* credit hours; 2-3 hours each 5-week session; *enrollment in 6 credit hours in the summer requires professor approval] [Ruser]

Students, under close faculty supervision, represent clients in a variety of civil legal matters, including full-service representation in the areas of estate planning and post-conviction relief (conviction set-asides, and record sealing). Students may also represent low-income clients in a limited-scope capacity in the areas of family law (divorce, custody, visitation), consumer protection, landlord-tenant, guardianships, administrative appeals, name changes, and other general civil matters. Students will also have the option of leading and/or participating in one of the Clinic's outreach projects (Project descriptions are available at <https://law.unl.edu/civil-clinic-outreach/>). In addition, each semester at least five Clinic students will have the opportunity to participate in an Advance Directive Clinic (<https://law.unl.edu/civil-clinic-outreach/advance-directive-clinic/>), an off-site program where students work with senior citizens in out-state Nebraska in drafting their estate planning documents. The Advance Directive Clinic for summer 2019 is scheduled to be held in Alliance, NE. All travel costs are covered.

The Civil Clinic has a classroom component that meets for 3 hours once during the week prior to the beginning of the first summer session, and then two hours per class during the semester. The classes will be scheduled for a time that is mutually convenient for students and faculty.

Priority will be given to students participating in the Litigation Skills Program of Concentrated Study. Pre-requisite: Pretrial Litigation and Legal Profession. Open only to students with senior standing.

Enrollment Limit: 4-6.

Criminal Clinic [6 credit hours; 3 hours each 5-week session] [Schmidt]

Students, under close faculty supervision, prosecute a variety of misdemeanor and felony offenses - conducting every hearing necessary for those cases, from initial charging to jury trials to sentencing. The cases are prosecuted through the Lancaster County Attorney's Office and the practice component of the course is conducted out of that office. Participation in the classroom component (which focuses on the development of skills necessary to the prosecution of criminal cases) is required. Open only to students with senior standing.

Students MUST reserve at least one full morning and one full afternoon for Criminal Clinic each week. NOTE: There is a classroom component consisting of approximately thirty (30) hours of training, practical application exercises and court observations frontloaded into the first few weeks of Clinic.

Preference will be given to students participating in the Litigation Skills Program of Concentrated Study. Pre-requisites: Trial Advocacy and Legal Profession. Enrollment Limit 8

Immigration Clinic [2-6 credit hours per semester; maximum of 12 credit hours total during the summer and academic year] [Ruser]

The Immigration Clinic is a course in which eight students are permitted to enroll. Two to four students can enroll in the Immigration Clinic during the summer (May-August) following their second year, and four to six additional students will be selected to be in the Immigration Clinic during the fall and spring semesters of their third year.

Students selected to be in the Immigration Clinic during the summer following their second year can enroll for 4 to 6 credit hours during the summer, which includes the first 5-week session and the second 5-week session. These students must also register for Immigration Clinic during the fall and spring semesters, and are subject to the 12 hour cap on Immigration Clinic credit hours.

Students selected to be in the Immigration Clinic during the fall and spring semesters of their third year will enroll for 4 to 6 credit hours per semester.

Students enrolling in the Immigration Clinic represent low-income clients with immigration problems under close faculty supervision. Most of the work is in the areas of deportation defense, family-based immigrant visas, domestic violence-related petitions, Special Immigration Juvenile cases, naturalization applications, and asylum applications, although other types of immigration cases may be assigned to students from time to time at the discretion of the supervising faculty member. Students taking Immigration Clinic may not take another Clinic.

Students in Immigration Clinic can expect to engage in the following types of activities: factual development and analysis, frequent client interviewing and counseling, preparation of immigration applications and supporting documentation, attendance with clients at immigration interviews, appearing in Immigration Court on behalf of clients, state and federal court appearances (as dictated by clients' legal needs), legal analysis and planning, frequent creation of written work product (including but not limited to legal memoranda, briefs, letters,
