

Apartment Guide

This list provides a small sampling of apartment complexes within a 7-mile radius of the Law College where a good number of our students live or have lived. Use this guide as merely a starting point. There are many more complexes in the area as well as rental homes. We have not investigated any apartments and do not make any recommendations or endorsements. All amenities listed are subject to change. In addition to these possibilities, you may also try contacting management companies. These companies generally have several complexes throughout the city with a wide variety of options and prices.
